CUSTOMS' SPECIAL INFORMATION

SPECIAL INFORMATION FOR PORTUGAL

Portuguese legislation limits the duration of driving a vehicle registered as TT (Temporary Transit) to 90 days within Portugal.

A non-renewable document entitled "GUÍA DE CIRCULAÇÃO" is required and must be obtained from customs. We advise you to do this at the border or at one of the customs offices in major cities or ports across the country.

SPECIAL INFORMATION FOR SWITZERLAND

Swiss legislation stipulates that students or trainees temporary residents in Switzerland, with a vehicle not registered in Switzerland, must declare themselves at customs by completing a "15-30" document (available at the customs office). This document costs about 25 CHF.

Important: It is your responsibility to comply with the legislation in force in the countries visited, including checking the validity of your license.
